A Singular Defection.

In no respect has the baneful influence of Wall street made itself felt more potent than in the efforts to defeat Col. Morrison's resolution to apply the surplus monies to the Treasury to the payment of the public debt. In Mr. Perry Belmont, the son of the agent of the Rothschilds in the United States, and in twelve other Democrats, all of them from the East, the ready instruments were found for this un-democratic surrender of the interests of the people.

The Financial and Mining Record points out, the Messrs. Hewitt and Belmont of New York have taken an attitude as spokesmen of the Treasury Department against the reduction of the Treasury surplus to $100,000,000, a measure reported and supported by Mr. Morrison, Chairman of the Committee of Ways and Means of the House of Representatives, in behalf of the majority of the Democratic members of that committee and carried, on Wednesday, July 14th, by the overwhelming vote of 209 for to 65 against—all the Democrats in the House voting with the majority, except precisely a baker's dozen, thirteen.

The expediency of such a reduction of the Treasury surplus was a favorite theme with the leaders of the Democratic party in both Houses anterior to the election of Mr. Cleveland. It was declared to be one of the measures which a Democratic administration of the government would bring to pass. Differ as they may about the best means of raising the necessary public revenue, Messrs. Morrison and Randall seem to have heartily agreed upon this one measure of financial reform.

And all of their fellow Democrats in the House, with but thirteen exceptions, have stood side by side with them giving voice by their votes to the wishes of that vast body of the voters of the Democratic party not in public life. And yet Messrs. Hewitt and Belmont found it consistent with party fealty to come into an active alliance with Mr. Hancock, of New York, and Mr. Dingley and Mr. Reed, of Maine, the three ablest Republicans in the House, in their effort to defeat a financial measure greatly desired by the mass of the Democratic party and to maintain in operation the financial policy established and upheld by their opponents as a course of action as wholly inconsistent with further relations with our good standing in the Democratic party as could possibly be taken by any man elected by a Democratic constituency. Nay, more, it is openly avowed that in this effort to foil the wishes of the Democratic party in Congress, Mr. Treasurer Jordan acted as "powder-monkey," so to speak, in supplying ammunition for the battery pulled by the distinguished Republican leader, Mr. Hancock, against the measure and against the character of the Democratic party, whose legitimate offspring he effected declared to be, just as is virtually asserted by the New York Evening Post, which at the same time characterized the measure, and the vote by which it was passed, as illustrations of the "depraved tendencies of the Democratic party in the view they take of the public finances."

Babble from the Evening Post and kindred Cassandra about the "dreadful" results sure to follow from these "depraved" financial measures that chance to run counter to the short-sighted views of Wall street counting houses, is to be expected. Such language is but the parrot-like repetition of what the same men said in 1878, after the enactment of the coinage law; that is, that the Government would not be able to refund the public debt even as low as 4 1/2 per cent., and would not be able to resume specie payment in 1879.

It is pertinent to ask if Mr. Randall, and those Democrats who voted with him against the consideration of the Morrison tariff measure, and to be regarded as schematics who must be driven from the Democratic fold, what is to be done with Messrs. Hewitt, Belmont and Findlay and their associates, who are now needed from their party and stand directly, as well as inferentially, the soundness of the whole financial policy of that party.

In touching upon this subject, possibly, we should add that it comes within our province to discuss it as one inextricably connected with the financial and industrial future of the country, wholly irrespective of its political bearings.

For prompt way in which the Legislature voted the salaries and incidental expenses of its members is one of the touching events of the day. The moderation with which it stopped short of a round appropriation of $50,000 was also most commendable. Men who can show a degree of self-restraint which led them to content themselves with only $40,000 are undoubtedly capable of great things. Our townsman Hazard astonished the body of which he was a member by the suggestion that the salary question could be attended to when the work was done. Perish the thought!

It is to be hoped that Governor Stoneman will follow up Mr. J. de Barthe's declaration that the memorial for the special session was signed by ninety of the hundred and twenty members of the Legislature by promptly publishing the list. The people are greatly interested in knowing to just what depths political trickery and tergiversation can descend. By all means give us the list.

There seems to be a great deal of difficulty in getting any Republican of character to consent to have anything to do with the project of uneating Hearst. They have a wholesome regard for the day of wrath to come.

A Glove Fight at San Francisco.

THE PRINCIPALS ARRESTED.

Killings at Louisville and New Albany, Indiana—A Bank Tax Case.

[Special to the Herald by the Associated Press.]

SAN FRANCISCO, July 27.—A fight between Martin Costello, "The Buffalo," and Tony Clegg took place at the Oakland Theatre this morning, with two gloves, Denny Haley was appointed referee, and Austin Fitzgerald and Mike Smith timekeepers. For several minutes there was lively sparring. At the close of the first round there was little advantage gained by either party. The men stood up to their work well. While the men were fighting the police surrounded the building. The men went to their work on the second round in earnest, and "The Buffalo" was delivering fearful blows at his opponent, when Captain Thomas jumped upon a chair and called aloud, "Stop this fight, you are all under arrest." The call caused a great commotion among all except the fighters. They fought more viciously than before. Captain Thomas and Deputy Sheriff Woolsey jumped into the ring to separate them. The men would not be separated. Their blows came quicker than before. "The Buffalo" was getting the advantage. Clegg struck him a terrible blow on the neck and Clegg fell prone upon the floor. The fight lasted less than ten minutes. Captain Thomas stepped forward and arrested the principals for a misdemeanor in participating in a prize fight, and announced to the spectators that they were under arrest for visiting a prize fight. The announcement caused great consternation in the crowd, but the means of egress were securely guarded. The crowd made a break for the windows and a large number jumped out and escaped. The principals and twenty-one of the spectators were captured and conveyed to the station. The bail of the principals was fixed at $500 and they were released on bonds. The spectators were released on paying $20 bail. The officers have the names of a large number of spectators who escaped, and they will be required to put up bail for their appearance or they will be arrested. The fight was for the middle-weight championship of the Pacific Coast and the gate money. The price of admission was $10, fifty-two persons paid the money, and there were gate receipts were $500. There were between seventy and eighty persons present in all. The gate money was paid to "The Buffalo" during the morning. The two principals are charged with felony. The other men arrested are accused of misdemeanor.

KILLING IN THE AIR.

Two Fatal Airships on the Ohio River.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., July 27.—Just before noon today John Koehler, a baker, shot and killed John Carter, a policeman, and mortally wounded Peter Haupt, a bricklayer. Several days ago Koehler left his young wife, charging her with infidelity and with love for Haupt. He went to see her to-day at his old home and found Haupt and Carter in the house. He tried to make them leave and they threatened to eject him, when he pulled his pistol and killed Carter and shot Haupt through the head. Koehler gave himself up.

Shortly after the Louisville tragedy a similar one occurred across the river at New Albany, where Professor J. P. Strunk shot and killed Chas. Hoover and seriously wounded his father, Dr. Hoover. It is charged that young Hoover had been too intimate with Strunk's wife. Only a short time ago he shot at Hoover but with no serious result. Hoover and father were returning from dinner at noon when they were met by Strunk, who began shooting. Dr. Hoover was shot through the groin. Young Hoover started to run but was struck by four bullets and fell down to the pavement. Dr. Hoover is a well known physician and is a professor in the Medical College.

A TAX CASE.

Holders of National Bank Shares to be Taxed.

SYRACUSE, N. Y., July 27.—Argument was heard here to-day by Judge Wallace of the United States court on a motion for preliminary injunctions made by thirty-five National banks of the city of New York to restrain the collection of taxes imposed upon bank shares for the year 1885, pending the issue of suits for permanent injunctions. The suits involved the constitutionality of the entire system of State taxation of shares of National banks, and are the most important cases presented to the Court since the subject. The main point urged by the banks is that the State levies taxes on shares of National banks by the several States at a greater rate than on other forms of money capital in the hands of individuals citizens. The point is sustained it will affect the taxation of shares of National banks in nearly every State in the Union, and in many States the taxation of State bank shares as well. The tax upon bank shares in New York city alone is more than $2,000,000 per year.

The S. P. Branch.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 27.—Two new maps have been filed in the United States land office in this city, each showing a section of twenty miles of the route of the Southern Pacific railroad extension below Soledad. The route they describe commences near mouth of San Miguel and runs along the Salinas river to a point opposite that village; thence following the Kettle river southwesterly, passing the old Chamaque and valley, (owned by R. E. Jack, the San Luis Obispo banker, and others) and ending at the mouth of the Kern county river. This entirely avoids Paso Robles Springs, which was contested with San Miguel for several years. These maps indicate that the great trunk line at Bakersfield, and that another road will be run up from Newhall or San Fernando to join this extension at a point east of San Miguel. The maps only describe the right of way, pursuant to an act of Congress of March 3, 1875, and are verified by Wm. Hood, Chief Engineer, and Charles F. Crocker, Vice-President of the Southern Pacific Railroad.

A Pretty Woman's Secret.

Fear of discovery, when she resorts to false hair and dyes, is a source of constant anxiety to her. The very person from whom she most desires to hide the waiting of her charms are the ones most likely to make the discovery. But there is no reason why she should not regain the truth of her hair, and retain the beauty of her hair in youth. Let her use AYER'S Hair Vigor, and not only will her hair cease to fall out, but a new growth will appear where the scalp has been denuded; and locks that were turning gray, or have actually grown white, will return to their pristine freshness and brilliancy of color. AYER'S Hair Vigor cures.

Hereditary Baldness.

GEORGE MAYER, Flatonia, Texas, was bald for several generations. One bottle of HAIN VIGOR started a growth of soft, downy hair all over his scalp, which soon became thick, long, and vigorous.

Ayer's Hair Vigor

Mrs. Catherine Drayton, Point of Rocks, Md., had her hair suddenly bleached by fright, during the late civil war. She used HAIN VIGOR, and restored to its natural color, and made it softer, smoother, and more abundant than it had been before.

Scalp Diseases

Which cause dizziness, brittleness, and falling of the hair, dandruff, itching, and annoying sores, are all quickly cured by AYER'S Hair Vigor. It is a powerful scalp restorer, and cures itching of the scalp; J. N. Campbell, Greenville, S. ## Surer Tranquilizer of the Nerves.

The surest tranquilizer of the nerves is a medicine which remedies their super-sensitiveness by invigorating them. Over-tension of the nerves always weakens them. What they need, then, is a tonic, not a sedative. The latter is only needed when there is intense mental excitement, and an immediate necessity exists for producing quiescence of the brain. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters restores the tranquility of the nerves by endeavoring them with the vigor requisite to bear, without being jarred or disturbed, the ordinary impressions of the world. Such, at least, is the testimony of business and professional men, literateurs, clergymen and others who have tested the fortifying and reparative influence of this celebrated tonic and nerve.

LADIES, use Hostetter's Aromatic Wine for nervousness and sleeplessness. For sale by H. D. Godfrey, Indian Block.
